
MICHAEL MANDERS EXECUTIVE CHEF

Biography

MICHAEL MANDERS Executive Chef

Michael Manders is the Executive Chef for Grand View Lodge. Michael manages and oversees the operations of all eight dining venues the resort has to offer. His responsibilities also include creating all culinary menus for all meetings and weddings, and managing all kitchen staff, inventory and budgets. Michael also creates exquisite five-course menus for the wine dinners held monthly at Grand View.

Michael has over 20 years of culinary experience and has served as an Executive Chef for over a decade. Prior to his current position, Michael served as the executive chef at the University Club of St. Paul as well as Orries Bar and Grill. Michael's culinary area of expertise is Contemporary American Cuisine.

Michael is a member of the American Culinary Federation. He attended St. Cloud State University in St. Cloud, Minn., and Rainy River Community College in International Falls, Minn.